

COUNTRY /ORGANIZATION	EVENT	DATE (2020)
CAYMAN ISLAND	17th Annual Sister Islands Agriculture Show to be held in Cayman Brac March 28. This is the largest event hosted on Cayman Brac. As in Grand Cayman the DOA's booth at the Show will feature IYPH and the importance of Plant health.	MARCH 28
CAYMAN ISLANDS	Commencing in January and continuing throughout the year the Cayman Islands Department of Agriculture will be promoting IYPH and Plant health on all of its Social media platforms, particularly Facebook and Instagram.	JANUARY
CAYMAN ISLANDS	Cayman Islands Department of Agriculture (DOA) launch of IYPH at the 53rd Agriculture Show in Grand Cayman., Ash Wednesday 26 February. The Agriculture Show is the largest one day event in the Cayman islands attracting over 8,000 persons. The DOA's 2,400 sq. ft. display booth featured a central display on IYPH, including official IPPC IYPH videos and displays illustrating major pest threats globally, in the Caribbean region and specific new pest introductions in the Cayman Islands. Other displays highlighted the importance of healthy plants for food (crop and livestock) production, environment and community health and wellbeing.	FEBRUARY 26
CAYMAN ISLANDS	Little Cayman Agriculture Show / Exhibition to be held April 25th. As with each show the DOA both will feature IYPH and the importance of plant health	APRIL 25
CAYMAN ISLANDS	Commencing in the Third Quarter staff from the Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Health Inspection Services (AHIS) will be visiting Primary Schools during school terms, to deliver an agreed presentation on the importance of Plant Health, IYPH and Don't Pack a Pest (DPAP) messages.	MAY
CAYMAN ISLANDS	CPHD Forum Annual Meeting	JULY 13-17
CAYMAN ISLANDS	IYPH Plant Health Day - Target at General Public and Schools	NOVEMBER